An Old Story

WELL TOLD

BEARS REPEATING

And that's why we keep repeating it over and over the Old Story

YOUR EYES

Keeping everlastingly at it brings the matter before you, reminding you that your eyes need help.You've known it a long time, but it's hard to get over the old superstition that it's better to postpone the use of glasses as long as possible.Like the average owner of a watch, repairing it only when it refuses to go, so the average owner of a pair of eyes will repair them only when they refuse to work.It is these people we appeal to —the I-don't-care kind. Delay is harmful, whether you think so or not. We cannot too strongly urge you to at least have your eyes examined. Your troubles may not be from your eyes, in which case we will cheerfully tell you so; but if the trouble is there, we can help you by fitting to your eyes a pair of glasses correcting the defect.Special and difficult optical fitting and grinding of lenses is our specialty.We prescribe only when glasses are needed, and not otherwise.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—A woman may perform the duties and virtually fill the office of Deputy United States Marshal of Hawaii. The prospective pioneer is the daughter of Daniel A.
Ray, who has been appointed to be the first United States Marshal of Hawaii.
Miss Ray is now holding a $1,200 position at Washington, but she will accompany her father to Honolulu. Her experience at Washington, her father says, has thoroughly fitted her for the office work of his chief deputy, and he thinks the Attorney-General of the United States will consent to this.NIECE OF W. N. ARMSTRONG.
She is Married to Grandson of Henry Ward Beecher.On May 26th, at Stockbridge, Mass., the marriage of Miss Louise H. Armstrong with Mr. W. H. Scoville took place at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Williams, the aunt of the bride. Mrs.
Scoville is the daughter of the late General S. C. Armstrong, and a niece of W. N. Armstrong and Mrs. P. L.
Weaver.Mr. Scoville is a grandson of the late Henry Ward Beecher, and is a graduate of Yale College. He has been connected for several years with the Hampton Normal and Agricultural School.

New Transport Rules.

The new rules for the government of army transport vessels were received here yesterday by mail from Washington. They were arranged by a board of officers appointed last December, consisting of Colonel Charles A. Woodruff of the subsistence department, MajorHenry S. Kilbourne of the medical department, and Major Francis B. Jones of the quartermaster's department of the United States army. The new regulations do not appear to be any more desirable than the old ones, so far as the question of the supreme authority on board the transport service was established, bickerings between the quartermaster captain and the master of the ship have been common, and various commanders have been relieved of their vessels as a result of the jealousy and complaints of the quartermaster, who is given command of everything on board, while the real master has little else to do than be responsible for the ship. The only material difference between the old and new rules appears to be the order that the commander of troops on board a transport shall have nothing to do with the ship itself.
Army officers and shipping men who have known of the troubles arising from a clash of authority between the quartermaster and captain do not believe the new rules will prove at all satisfactory.—S. F. Chronicle, June 1.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

This is Honolulu Testimony and Will Stand Investigation.If you doubt this and wish to investigate you haven't to go to San Francisco to do so. It's not a long story published about a resident of New York or Washington. It's about a resident of Honolulu. Read the following:Mr. Levi Drew, of this city, states:
"I suffered from a lame back for a number of years. During this time I was working as a carpenter, and the lifting of heavy timber required in my occupation, was, I think, the cause of my backache. No one but a fellow victim can well understand what a troublesome complaint this is. At length I was fortunate enough to hear about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, and I then obtained some at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. The use of them has convinced me from personal experience that they are a wonderful cure for backache and I have no hesitancy in recommending them to others for this complaint."Please remember, the word of Honolulu people is always found endorsing Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. They talk through your neighbors and friends.The kidneys become diseased by intemperate habits of eating or drinking, by excessive care, worry or fretting, by exposure to colds and moisture, by injuries to the loins and back, etc. The most common symptoms are a dull sensation of weight about the loins, pain in the back, feeling of faintness, dizziness, nervousness, frequent thirst, difficulty in breathing, too great flow of urine or too little. Kidney trouble renders the blood impure, injures the digestion and upsets the nervous system, thus striking at the very source of life. They are very important organs and how little are they understood.Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents a box or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands."What is an island?" asked the teacher, addressing her interrogation to the class in geography. "An island, ma'am," replied Johnny Broadhead, a studious lad who had Porto Rico in mind, "is a body of land entirely surrounded by politics."
